

New Year Resolutions

Josie has been thinking about the New Year.

She feels that things need to change around her home.

She thinks her boyfriend could be a better lover and more useful.

It just needs some determination on her part.

That is why Josie is working on some New Year Resolutions.

Natalie's resolution is to improve her domestic skills.

Sometimes she feels the flat does not look clean and tidy enough.

It is really a problem because she doesn't have enough time to deal with all the cleaning.

Luckily her boyfriend is helping her out with her resolution.

Natalie is certainly skilled enough to supervise him.

Georgia hasn't been getting enough exercise.

She thinks she spends too long indoors.

Her resolution is to make sure that she does her 10,000 steps every day.

Her boyfriend is wondering if it still counts if you do it on your hands and knees.

Jennie has been thinking back over the last year at work.

She doesn't feel her efforts have been recognised. And, she thinks her boss has been stealing her best ideas and claiming them as his own.

Jennie has discovered that her boss has some rather special sexual tastes.

She has resolved to take advantage of those to get a well earned promotion.

Gemma's New Year Resolution is not to let the sun go down on her anger.

She knows that if she gets upset and lets things fester then it can cause ill feeling to everyone around her.

She has resolved to confront things that upset her straight away.

Her boyfriend is about to find out how determined Gemma is about her resolution.

Hayley has resolved not to buy so many new shoes this year.

She is asking her friend's advice about whether she could even get rid of some on Vinted.

Hayley's boyfriend doesn't see why he had to come along as well.

He would rather Hayley's friend didn't know about their special relationship.

Lucy is trying to make sure that she sticks to her resolutions.

She feels her boyfriend persuades her to do the wrong thing too often. She thinks he feels her resolutions do not matter.

She has come up with a way to stop him interfering with her plans.

This resolution will be something that her boyfriend finds easy to stick to.

Jill's New Year Resolution is to learn a new skill.

She has enrolled in an on-line class that claims to teach you how to improve your sex life by managing your man's sexual urges.

Jill is learning how to keep her man's cock under her control.

Jill thinks her resolution is a great success. She is having much more fun now, even if her man isn't.

Marianne has resolved to improve her social skills. She thinks she needs to become a better hostess.

She is sure that her afternoon tea parties will be more successful if her husband serves at table while dressed as a maid.

He needs to learn to curtsy properly, Marianne thinks. Then her friends will feel he is paying them the right level of respect.

Lottie's New Year Resolution is to take better care of herself.

Sometimes, she just pushes herself too hard. It's too easy to end up working every waking hour.

Lottie is trying to make sure she makes time for herself.

She is taking the chance to put her feet up while she has a glass of wine.

Angie, Jen and Rebekah have made a joint resolution.

They have agreed to each introduce a new man to their gynarchic ideals every week.

That way, by the end of the year, over 150 more men will have learned what it is like to live in a world ruled by women.

Angie, Jen and Rebekah think that there's is a very public-spirited resolution.
